PERFECT MAN TOPIC OF MORMON'S TALK

Prof. Joshua H. Paul Delivers the Regular Address at the Tabernacle.

In a lengthy sermon at the tabernacia Sunday afternoon Prof. Joshua H. Paul discussed the "perfectness in men" and explained how hard it was to find perfect men or to be perfect, saying that even in examining closely into the lives of the "early fathers of the church," it was the "early fathers of the church." It was possible to find their faults. Joseph Smith was inentioned as the inspired prophet, etc., but Professor Paul neither held him up as a perfect man nor alluded to any faults of the prophet.

"We can scarcely conceive." said Professor Paul, "of the time it takes to make a man or a child perfect. It extends almost throughout infinity. Perfect men are scarce. Even the early fathers of the church are found to have faults when their lives are studied.

"When we become pure we shall have porfect religion. Man is perfect when he is doing the best that he can in the conditions in which he is placed.

"What did Christ mean when he said," Except ye become as little children, ye cannot enter the kingdom of heaven?" He meant that if we did not become as children, capable of growth and advancement, we could not get into heaven.

"Our faith differs from some others in that we do not believe children are damned if they die at birth. They go back to God from whence they came. In heaven they grow and develop as persons do on earth, and make ready to welcome their parents in heaven.

TRIBUNE IS INDORSED FOR ANTI-POLYGAMY STAND

Editor of the Tribune -Editor of the Tribune:—

Sir:—I delight in truth, the knowledge of which is power; this power alone can save Utah, from the trammels of Mormonism. I am a deliv reader of all the papers in the city, and I delight in the efforts of The Tribune in bringing to light the fiendish and selfish rites practiced by the grafting and followed by the ignorant and fearing Mormons.

A house divided against itself can not stand. Dogmatic Mormonism must ask God to correct His mistakes in another revelation as the manifesto or it is revelation as the manifesto or it is doomed. Some time back you asked what can the oath against the nation mean. Every person of broad mind and a dight ideal should do all in his power to ald the one paper in the city that dares to print the news in its noble work of crushing the evil of luring poor, unfortunate foreign people here in the name of religion only to find a creed so vile and base as to accept polygamy as a once given revelation from the Diety.

Polygamy is barbarous and therefore not from God any more than the manifesto is a revelation, but a snare and a blind to the poor members of the church who are still in darkness and fear. If I thought this paper did not know the oath against the nation, I would contribute to its columns an article not only exposing the oath but other secrets of the inner circle temple doings.

Go ahead, Tribune, you are waking the people up. Your work is noble and honest and I believe it is the carnest dealire of The Tribune to give courage and hope to those victimized by "fear of God," and threats of the priesthood. Truly has the pastor said were Christ on earth today he would be hustled to the holdover.

MEMORIAL KINDERGARTEN OPENED IN NEW YORK CITY

In view that a benefit performance is to be given at the Sait Lake theater this Monday evening for the free kindergarten, a most worthy and most needed charity, it might be mentioned that in New York City recently was dedicated by the New York Kindergarten association a memorial building erected by John D. Archbold in memory of his daughter. The association is but sixteen years old but during that short period there have been instituted in that city 600 kindergartens. In the public schools there the association has $6 kindergartens of its own in the foreign section of the metropolis. It is the entering wedge for a higher civilization.

WHO COULD NOT MAKE MONEY IF THEY WERE OF THE FAVORED CLASS?

Our great Government having surrendered the control of the people's currency to the national banks, with the loan of its credit, has deemed it a duty to further assist these infant financial institutions by turning over millions of dollars of the United States treasury money free of any interest, that the banks may be able to accommodate the business public by loaning them the same money at 6 to 10 per cent interest. For the Government to loan money direct to the people would be paternalism, but to loan money to the national banks is to save the credit and business interests of the country and prevent the Nation's bankruptcy! Next time you are in the Louvre Cafe, ask for Rosskam, Gerstley & Company's Monogram No. 6

It is the finest whiskey sold in the world by the drink-in fact, it is too good for most cafes and bars to handle. Just ask for "No. 6."
